About 1925 we had colder winters for I remember that Oscar had a small car and the ice would be thick enough that he would drive it out on the frozen pond. We neighbor hood kids would gather there. We would line up and hold hands and he would pull us across the ice. I look back and wonder if our parents knew what we were up to? It was great fun. We haven't had winters that cold in a very long time.

My family lived near John Edward Betchan out west of Orlando, Okla. We lived about ½ a mile on west of them. The Dan Robbins family also lived in the area. They lived about ½ mile or so North West of us. We kids of school age all went to school together in a one room school a mile and ½ to 2 miles from where we lived. Our Teacher was Mrs Katherine Griniger and she was keeping an eye on a developing storm. When she determined that it was going to get bad she sent us home and told us not to dawdle and play on our way.. Now some of us were used to playing on the way and we wanted to do so that day..Grace, who was old enough to know better than loaf along grabbed Ruth by a hand and me by the other and literally made us run. When we came over the hill where we could see our house, my Dad and Mother were in the yard waiting for us to get home so we could get in the cellar. A Cyclone, as they were called in those days were on the way just behind us as we made it down the hill. Grace had run us all the way and Dad wouldn't let her go on to her home. She said, "I need to go, my folks will be worried" Dad said "Yes, but you will be alive, when it is over , so please get in the cellar, It is nearly here." She did and we were all safe in the Cellar and could call her folks on the phone when it was all over. We, too were all safe but it blowed away every thing but the house and the Car. The car was rolled over a couple of times but it was still drive able. Mom had 12 hens setting on eggs that were to start hatching the next day and Chickens that were near frying size. There were dead chickens laying all around. A few of the hens had scratched up egg shells and were still trying to do their jobs. The Cows and Horses had survived but their shelters were gone, as was the big watering tank we had for them. The Robbins family said they stood in their yard and saw the tank and lumber and various things flying thru the air..Neighbors were very good to help rebuild and replace by donating time and some materials, even bring some of their own chickens. Good Folk.

Julias parents:: Andrew Jackson Robbins
 Fannie Hudson

This family were close neighbors part of the time we lived on the Rawlings place, near Mulhall. We kids went to school together at the Pleasant Valley School and then at Mulhall after we were consolidated with the Mulhall School. Ed and Julia moved later into the Orlando area, on the place that Richard and Frances Fent later bought. Ed and Julia had then moved even closer to Orlando, but it wasn't so far we could not still get together.

Aunt Julia was a person who opened her door with great hospitality to all. She never seemed to be anxious or flustered at fixing a meal, no matter who showed up at their door. We neighborhood kids shared many good times together at school, at parties or just causal get togethers .

The School house..Pleasant Valley served for School but also for Church and entertainments of such things as Box suppers, Christmas Parties and Picnics.

"Ed" as Edward Oliver was known was well known as a man who liked to fish and hunt and he did a lot of that. He had a knack of bring home meat to put on the table and it was more plentiful back in the 30's and 40's than it was later.. They had a bunch of boys which was a great drawing card for all the neighborhood girls and boys. I, Leona Fent married a Nephew of Ed, Clarence James Ramsey, known as "Bud". 3. of our Children were born on dates that were very significant to Aunt Julia..David was born on the 9 June, which was her birthday. Jane was born on Ed and Julia's wedding anniversary, 31 October and Nancy was born on November 5, the day Aunt Julia died. My sister Ruth Fent married the oldest son of Ed and Julia, Charles Franklin and so our two families were bound with strong ties.

8 Children were born to them.

The Robbins family lived neighbors to us out West of Orlando Okla. They were good country folk. Dan was a brother to Julia Robbins Betchan. We knew the Robbins before we knew Julia. We knew them at the same time as we knew the John Betchan family. Mrs John Betchan was also a sister to Dan Robbins and to Julia. Her name was Annie Robbins, Bounds, Betchan. Julia became my aunt by marriage when I married Clarence James Ramsey. She was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. She had a big family and often entertained a raft of relatives and friends. She was as near unflappable as any one I have ever known. If unexpected company arrived when she was preparing a meal she added a few more potatoes to the pot and made more gravy and she never seemed flustered or "put on". She worked with a smile and whistled almost constantly, as she worked. Uncle Ed, Julias spouse loved to hunt and fish and he rarely came home empty handed, so he supplied a lot of the meat beside beef, pork or chicken, which they raised on the farm. Ed and Julia had 7 boys and one girl. Nancy was a good roll model for the neighborhood girls. She was very pretty, with beautiful hair that she kept shining clean and she was a very sweet young lady that had time for we , some what younger girls. Naturally the boys drew the girls to their home. In the late 20s and 30s there was no T.V..Not many even had radios so our entertainment was the home made kind, but we visited, we had parties of various kinds,we played games. Hide and seek was a favorite back in those days. We had Christmas programs for the community and We had Pie suppers which were also a lot of fun. We did not lack for entertainment. We had a nice little Church,meeting in the school house, which served the whole community and we got along to-gether even if we didn't see things in the Bible as others sometimes did. We did not miss what we had never had and life was full of work, but we had always had that, so we considered that life was good. We had God, we had the Bible and Church, and we had friends. What more does one need to be content.
